FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MART PRODUCTS NO LONGER “OSTRICH CHAIR” DISTRIBUTOR Deltess Corp. takes back Ostrich Brand

After three years, Mart Products LLC licensing distribution agreement with Deltess Corp, for the popular Ostrich Beach Chair line of products has ended.

Deltess announces that they are again the sole distributor of the popular Ostrich brand of beach chairs and outdoor products. “As the inventors, trademark, patent holders and the original marketers, we are thrilled to take back distribution responsibilities of Ostrich products.” says Deltess Co-founder, Adam Tesser.

“We are eager to continue growing the Ostrich Beach line of products, as well as our fledgling Ostrich PakSeat backpack and messenger bag line. As always, we are continuously working on new and innovative products.” says Deltess Co-founder, Dave D’Alessandro

About Deltess Corporation:

Deltess is a company that designs and manufactures original beach and outdoor products. Deltess incorporated in January 2004 when its two founders began the patent process for their original product, the Ostrich 3N1 Chair. With the success of the 3N1 and its successors, Deltess has begun production on a new line of products including the Ostrich Pakseat.
